According to experts, there will be nearly 26 billion devices on The Internet of Things by 2020. Making sense of that connectedness is critical for business decision making. In fact, The Internet of Things is changing the way all of us will interact with, manage and monitor our devices, our environment, and ultimately, our relationships with each other.

Join us as we discuss the current state of The Internet of Things and its implications for financing strategy and mergers & acquisitions in the quarters and years ahead.
